KAPLAN FOX & KILSHEIMER LLP

Over the past three decades, Kaplan Fox has been at the forefront of some of the most significant private antitrust class actions, securities class actions, derivative actions, and consumer class actions in the United States. Members of the firm have been appointed by federal and state courts as lead counsel, co-lead counsel or as a member of an executive committee in numerous actions. We have recovered more than $2 billion for our clients in the past 10 years. The following describes one of Kaplan Fox's major practice areas and its most significant recoveries and its personnel.

ANTITRUST LITIGATION

For more than 30 years, the antitrust attorneys at Kaplan Fox have represented on a contingent fee basis businesses and individuals, on both a class and non-class basis, who have been injured as a result of price-fixing, customer allocation or other anti-competitive behavior, by sellers of a broad array of products and services.

Kaplan Fox is frequently at the forefront of significant private antitrust actions, and we have been appointed by courts as lead counsel or member of an executive committee for plaintiffs in some of the largest antitrust cases throughout the United States. Members of the firm have argued before federal Courts of Appeals some of the most significant decisions in the antitrust field in recent years. Robert Kaplan argued the appeal in In re Flat Glass Antitrust Litigation, 385 F. 3d 350 (3d Cir. 2004), and Greg Arenson argued the appeal in In re High Fructose Corn Syrup Antitrust Litigation, 295 F. 3d 651 (7th Cir. 2002).

Over the years, Kaplan Fox has recovered over $2 billion for our clients. Some of the larger more recent antitrust recoveries include:
